

The Faithful Love of God

When we were young, our mothers made us food. We could see by how the food was made that she loved us: none of it touched, burnt pieces cut away, perfectly arranged. Although that food was eaten and turned into bile and expelled out of the body, lasting only for a short while, it was made with love. If our mothers made food with love that was turned to bile and expelled into the sewer, how much more God shows His love for us in making our bodies? He created us with eyes not touching the other, He cuts away our illnesses, arranges us perfectly; we are fearfully and wonder fully made! Even if we think we have mistakes, God doesn't make mistakes —He is perfect. It's impossible for God to make a mistake. Some might think, "God didn't make me; my father and mother did". Yes, they had a part, but your mother didn't work hard to make you; neither did your father. He planted a seed, and God was the One Who made you grow. Neither the one who plants nor the one who bears worked, but God, Who made you grow, worked. We didn't ask for life, nor did we earn our lives, nor did we work for our lives, but God freely gave us life. This world that we were born into is evil and is under the control of the evil one; we also have evil living within us: "Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. (Ps 51)". When we were born, we were taught to be good. Why would we need to be taught, if we were already good? We would just be good in that case! It's because we are evil and inherently do evil, that is why we need to be taught good. This shows that everybody is under the power of sin by simply being born into this world.

The Faithful Love of God

When we were young, our mothers made us food. We could see by how the food was made that she loved us: none of it touched, burnt pieces cut away, perfectly arranged. Although that food was eaten and turned into bile and expelled out of the body, lasting only for a short while, it was made with love. If our mothers made food with love that was turned to bile and expelled into the sewer, how much more God shows His love for us in making our bodies? He created us with eyes not touching the other, He cuts away our illnesses, arranges us perfectly; we are fearfully and wonder fully made! Even if we think we have mistakes, God doesn't make mistakes —He is perfect. It's impossible for God to make a mistake. Some might think, "God didn't make me; my father and mother did". Yes, they had a part, but your mother didn't work hard to make you; neither did your father. He planted a seed, and God was the One Who made you grow. Neither the one who plants nor the one who bears worked, but God, Who made you grow, worked. We didn't ask for life, nor did we earn our lives, nor did we work for our lives, but God freely gave us life. This world that we were born into is evil and is under the control of the evil one; we also have evil living within us: "Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. (Ps 51)". When we were born, we were taught to be good. Why would we need to be taught, if we were already good? We would just be good in that case! It's because we are evil and inherently do evil, that is why we need to be taught good. This shows that everybody is under the power of sin by simply being born into this world.

The Faithful Love of God

When we were young, our mothers made us food. We could see by how the food was made that she loved us: none of it touched, burnt pieces cut away, perfectly arranged. Although that food was eaten and turned into bile and expelled out of the body, lasting only for a short while, it was made with love. If our mothers made food with love that was turned to bile and expelled into the sewer, how much more God shows His love for us in making our bodies? He created us with eyes not touching the other, He cuts away our illnesses, arranges us perfectly; we are fearfully and wonder fully made! Even if we think we have mistakes, God doesn't make mistakes —He is perfect. It's impossible for God to make a mistake. Some might think, "God didn't make me; my father and mother did". Yes, they had a part, but your mother didn't work hard to make you; neither did your father. He planted a seed, and God was the One Who made you grow. Neither the one who plants nor the one who bears worked, but God, Who made you grow, worked. We didn't ask for life, nor did we earn our lives, nor did we work for our lives, but God freely gave us life. This world that we were born into is evil and is under the control of the evil one; we also have evil living within us: "Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. (Ps 51)". When we were born, we were taught to be good. Why would we need to be taught, if we were already good? We would just be good in that case! It's because we are evil and inherently do evil, that is why we need to be taught good. This shows that everybody is under the power of sin by simply being born into this world.

The Faithful Love of God

When we were young, our mothers made us food. We could see by how the food was made that she loved us: none of it touched, burnt pieces cut away, perfectly arranged. Although that food was eaten and turned into bile and expelled out of the body, lasting only for a short while, it was made with love. If our mothers made food with love that was turned to bile and expelled into the sewer, how much more God shows His love for us in making our bodies? He created us with eyes not touching the other, He cuts away our illnesses, arranges us perfectly; we are fearfully and wonder fully made! Even if we think we have mistakes, God doesn't make mistakes —He is perfect. It's impossible for God to make a mistake. Some might think, "God didn't make me; my father and mother did". Yes, they had a part, but your mother didn't work hard to make you; neither did your father. He planted a seed, and God was the One Who made you grow. Neither the one who plants nor the one who bears worked, but God, Who made you grow, worked. We didn't ask for life, nor did we earn our lives, nor did we work for our lives, but God freely gave us life. This world that we were born into is evil and is under the control of the evil one; we also have evil living within us: "Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. (Ps 51)". When we were born, we were taught to be good. Why would we need to be taught, if we were already good? We would just be good in that case! It's because we are evil and inherently do evil, that is why we need to be taught good. This shows that everybody is under the power of sin by simply being born into this world.

Because of our sin, we think God is against us. We know the evil one is against us, but if God were against us too, we would not be able to survive. It is true that the evil one is against us; but God is not against us—He is for us. When we were young, we had no attraction to the opposite gender because we had not gone through puberty. But at just the right time, our eyes were opened and we saw the reality of the opposite gender. In the same way, our eyes are blinded to the light and love of God. But, “You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (Rom 5)”. Jesus, Who is God in bodily form, not only loved us on the cross, but loved us from the beginning, on the cross, and to this day. “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, (yes) and forever. (Heb 13)”. Before we take a bath, there is clean water and we are dirty; afterwards, the water becomes dirty and we become clean. Jesus became what we are, so we would become what He is; He became sin to take away our sin; He cleansed us from our sin by His death; He has made us right with God so we may fellowship with Him. Just as we received our first life by grace; we receive new life by grace, hearing the Word and believing it. Our old life is born into sin; this new life is born into right living by the Spirit of God. One might feel guilty because Jesus died; but God raised Him from the dead! He now lives forever and you have fellowship with Him. Because of love, turn away from sin and turn to God in faith; be baptized in water and Spirit.

Because of our sin, we think God is against us. We know the evil one is against us, but if God were against us too, we would not be able to survive. It is true that the evil one is against us; but God is not against us—He is for us. When we were young, we had no attraction to the opposite gender because we had not gone through puberty. But at just the right time, our eyes were opened and we saw the reality of the opposite gender. In the same way, our eyes are blinded to the light and love of God. But, “You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (Rom 5)”. Jesus, Who is God in bodily form, not only loved us on the cross, but loved us from the beginning, on the cross, and to this day. “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, (yes) and forever. (Heb 13)”. Before we take a bath, there is clean water and we are dirty; afterwards, the water becomes dirty and we become clean. Jesus became what we are, so we would become what He is; He became sin to take away our sin; He cleansed us from our sin by His death; He has made us right with God so we may fellowship with Him. Just as we received our first life by grace; we receive new life by grace, hearing the Word and believing it. Our old life is born into sin; this new life is born into right living by the Spirit of God. One might feel guilty because Jesus died; but God raised Him from the dead! He now lives forever and you have fellowship with Him. Because of love, turn away from sin and turn to God in faith; be baptized in water and Spirit.

Because of our sin, we think God is against us. We know the evil one is against us, but if God were against us too, we would not be able to survive. It is true that the evil one is against us; but God is not against us—He is for us. When we were young, we had no attraction to the opposite gender because we had not gone through puberty. But at just the right time, our eyes were opened and we saw the reality of the opposite gender. In the same way, our eyes are blinded to the light and love of God. But, “You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (Rom 5)”. Jesus, Who is God in bodily form, not only loved us on the cross, but loved us from the beginning, on the cross, and to this day. “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, (yes) and forever. (Heb 13)”. Before we take a bath, there is clean water and we are dirty; afterwards, the water becomes dirty and we become clean. Jesus became what we are, so we would become what He is; He became sin to take away our sin; He cleansed us from our sin by His death; He has made us right with God so we may fellowship with Him. Just as we received our first life by grace; we receive new life by grace, hearing the Word and believing it. Our old life is born into sin; this new life is born into right living by the Spirit of God. One might feel guilty because Jesus died; but God raised Him from the dead! He now lives forever and you have fellowship with Him. Because of love, turn away from sin and turn to God in faith; be baptized in water and Spirit.

Because of our sin, we think God is against us. We know the evil one is against us, but if God were against us too, we would not be able to survive. It is true that the evil one is against us; but God is not against us—He is for us. When we were young, we had no attraction to the opposite gender because we had not gone through puberty. But at just the right time, our eyes were opened and we saw the reality of the opposite gender. In the same way, our eyes are blinded to the light and love of God. But, “You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (Rom 5)”. Jesus, Who is God in bodily form, not only loved us on the cross, but loved us from the beginning, on the cross, and to this day. “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, (yes) and forever. (Heb 13)”. Before we take a bath, there is clean water and we are dirty; afterwards, the water becomes dirty and we become clean. Jesus became what we are, so we would become what He is; He became sin to take away our sin; He cleansed us from our sin by His death; He has made us right with God so we may fellowship with Him. Just as we received our first life by grace; we receive new life by grace, hearing the Word and believing it. Our old life is born into sin; this new life is born into right living by the Spirit of God. One might feel guilty because Jesus died; but God raised Him from the dead! He now lives forever and you have fellowship with Him. Because of love, turn away from sin and turn to God in faith; be baptized in water and Spirit.